GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS HAITHCOCK TO OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Tommianne Haithcock of Farmville to the North Carolina Board of Occupational Therapy.

Haithcock is an instructional fieldwork coordinator at Pitt Community College in Greenville. She is a member of the National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy Inc. and a member of the North Carolina and American Occupational Therapy Associations. Haithcock received the Pitt Community College Excellence in Teaching Award in 1998-2004 as well as 2007 and was a semi-finalist for the North Carolina Community College Excellence in Teaching award in 2003. She received her Associate's degree in occupational therapy from Pitt Community College.

The board establishes licensing qualifications; conducts investigations of licensees; communicates disciplinary actions to authorities; issues, renews and revokes licenses; hires or appoints administrative personnel; conducts administrative hearings; establishes fees; and submits an annual report to the governor and General Assembly. The board has seven members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
